By the Lord Deputy.

OSSORY,

WHEREAS the Parliament ſtands Prorogued untill the Seventeenth day of January next; And whereas for ſundry Cauſes and Conſiderations; We have thought it fit and convenient and neceſſary further to Prorogue the ſaid Parliament untill the twentieth day of February next; We do therefore will and require all Perſons to whom it doth or ſhall appertain to take due notice thereof, to the end that in the mean time they may repair to their Houſes or otherwiſe apply themſelves about their private Affairs at their pleaſures, And then to give their attendance here again, at the day and time aforeſaid, in the uſual place appointed for that intended Service, whereof they may not fail.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin the nineteenth day of December, 1664.

GOD Save the KING.

DUBLIN,
Printed by John Crooke, Printer to the Kings Moſt Excellent Majeſty, and are to be ſold by Samuel Dancer in Caſtle-Street. 1664.